Many Card Parties In City During the Week

Numerous Happy Affairs In Club Circles

Pleasing Shoe

We have shoes pleasing to the eye and pleasant for the foot. The 3-button patent Oxford is a very dressy shoe and a favorite seller. Price $3.50

We have a great variety of other Oxfords and Pumps for street or evening wear in patent, colored calf, satin, suede or gold kid, ranging in price from $3.00 to ..... $10.00

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the usual hoter, Friday class this year.

afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

Miss Seamons toasted the "Helpers of the Class," to which Miss Hall reelectrical treatment of diseases. strongly objected to operations, only as

The subject of "Flower Mission" day was discussed and a wish expressed for cooperation in this beautiful work.

The Women's Foreign Missionary so ciety will convene in its aunual con-ference on Saturday, May 14, at Trinity M. E. church. The convention will class work. last over Saturday and Sunday, and a very large attendance is expected. On Saturday at noon a luncheon will at the church complimentary visiting women.

> cular monthly meeting of the the Y. W. C. A. has been from Thursday to Tuesday ay 17, at 10 oclock. The Herald building.

niar meeting of the St. ocial club will be held at the parish house, corner Montana bell streets tomorrow evening is the last meeting of the of the evening will be the elec-new officers for the ensuing he Philathea class of the First Bapchurch enjoyed a delightful banon Monday evening at the Angelus

-together celebration before the ers, many of whom are teachers blic schools, left for their suma beautifully appointed ta-stress, first addressing ring them to greater ing the coming year. d upon Dr. H. F. especially the president, Miss Cole-Miss Black and Mrs. William Graves responded to this toast in appropriate and appreciative words. Mrs. Smith then toasted the five brides who have left or are leaving the

Mrs. H. F. Wright toasted the Baracea Class," speaking not only of their capable work in class, but of their success in winning so many of our best members as their brides.

Mr. Red represented the Baraccas In his response.

Mrs. Smith then toasted Mrs. Wright for her assistance in every line of the

PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF

"We find upon an examination and evidence submitted that there is every reason to believe that the quantity of ground water of the Lanorin mesa is sufficient to more than supply all the future needs of the city of El Paso."-From the report of the First Water Committee, James G. McNary, chairman.

CONSTANT AND SERIOUS MENACE

"The present condition of the city of El Paso as to its water supply represents a constant and serious menace to the health and property of the people until next September, all members of this city."—From the report of the expected to be present. One of the first water committee, James G. McNary,

DANDRUFF VS. DAINTINESS.

It is almost unbelievable that a woman dainty in all other respects will suffer her hair to remain full of dandruff. Besides being unsightly, dan-druff chokes up the roots of the hair causing it to lose life and luster and finally fall out.

White's Hair Tonic. Used regularly, it keeps the hair free from dan-druff, nourishes the scalp, and causes an abundant crop of little new hairs. White's Hair Tonic is our own preparation, sold only by us. Scott White & Co.,

Prescription Druggists, 204 Mills St.

The present coiffures are ugly and unbecoming unless skillfully done. Let us show you how to dress your hair. er, to toast his class. us show you how to dress aded all the officers, Elite Parlors, over Calisher's

Need Money

SEE OUR WINDOW

Jewelry of Every Kind Cut From 25c to 50 Per Cent

FULLAN'S

219 San Antonio Street.

One More Discovery

(By Harry F. Bowling,)

Nor among the ice of ages, where the frosty storm flend rages, Have I sought to claim the laurels earned by Peary, claimed by Cook: Nor by efforts strong and manly vied with Roosevelt, or with Stanley To confine the world's equator in a copyrighted book.

From such arduous toll exempted, none the less have I attempted Long to penetrate a realm uncharted since the dawn of days. Seers have sought, but never found 11, broken hearts are strewn around it; And this sweet, clusive goal is called "The Drift of Woman's Ways."

Society Has Done It's Best To Entertain Banker Guests

velcome with large red letters every your of the day in their effort to make bankers realize that western hospitality is a close second to the southern brand made famous in song and story. Nothing will be left undone that will contribute in any manner to the pleasure and interest of the visitors, until they conclude their stay in the city on Thursday.

The week of entertainment arranged for the visitors has been a continuous performance with a special feature for played its most alluring airs through-

On Monday evening the Elks extend-ed their hospitality to the bankers and their wives at a reception from 9 to 11

This occasion started the social features with a swing that has gained momentum as the week progressed. The handsome home of the Elks was blaze of light, on Monday evening from basement to roof, and radiated ideal hosts.

hospitality on every side. In the de The wives of the Elks, and of the local hankers, assisted in entertaining and making the visitors feel at home. Some of the younger guests enjoyed dancing during the evening and a de-

The women of El Pase are spelling lightful lunch was served in the dining

The Country club was the center of ! interest Tuesday afternoon for the visitors, when a delightful informal tea

The guests assembled at the St. Regis and were conveyed to the club house in automobiles. The wives of the local bankers acted as the hostesses of the afternoon, introducing the guests, and the at home feeling soon prevailed among the visitors, many of whom renewed acquaintances made on former Tea and wafers were served from the small tables, and Concha's orchestra out the afternoon.

The reception tendered the wives and daughters of the visiting bankers Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Turney was a particularly brilliant affair.

The Turney home with its attractive clonial style, spacious rooms and high ceilings is admirably adapted to enter-taining, and Mr. and Mrs. Turney make in the decorations quantities of La France roses, ferns and pink sweet peas The reception was in charge of France roses, ferns and pink sweet peas Maruy Kemp and W. K. Marr, and was a most enjoyable and successful event. Their fragrance and natural leveliness to > vaded making the guests at once feel at home and among friends.

Activity Among People Of El Paso Going and Coming

evening for her home in Las Cruces

Miss Estelle Goodman, who is attending Troop's Polytechnic school in Pasadena, Cal., was the recent fortuis an El Paso girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Goodman of this city.

Mrs. Ernst Hurms, who has been visiting her uncle and aunt, judge and Mrs. W. M. Caldwell, left Sunday for her home in Torreon. Mexico.

Mrs. B. F. Hammett is again at home after a mon. it in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nolte, of Seguin, Texas, are here attending the meeting of the bankers, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Turney. Before her marriage Mrs. Nolte visited Mrs. Turney a number of times, and will be emembered by a large circle of friends as Miss Bancy.

John A. Payne, of Palmer, Texas, came in on the bankers' special Mon-day evening and will be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Love, during Henry Keller, of Runge, Texas, arrived with the bankers' special Monday evening to attend the convention and to visit his daugnters, Mrs. Fred Muller and Mrs. Anna K. Rogers, of 917 Mundy avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Burges is expected home soon from Fulton, Mo., where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. P. Pot-

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Semple left the first of the week for Los Angeles. Mrs. Semple will spend the summer at one stay Mr. Semple will return to the city.

Mrs. Julius Krakauer is visiting for a short time in Chihuahua.

The friends of Mrs. O. C. Ell'son vill regret to know that she continues quite ill at her home in Highland Miss Virginia Mitchell is spending the cek as the guest of Mrs. A. G. Foster.

Judge and Mrs. Julius A. Buckler and daughter, Miss Henrietta, are guests of the St. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Payne are stayng at the Country club for a short time, while their new home down the valley is being completed. Mrs. J. F. Primm is rapidly recovering house guest Mrs. Q. B. Henderson, of ficitis, which her friends will be pleas-Mrs. S. T. Turner has as her charming guest Mrs. Q. B. Henderson, of Coleman, Tex., who is here attending the bankers' convention. Mrs. Hender-son will remain over in the city for a week or 19 days.

Mrs. Robert B. Homan and little son and daughter have gone to Dallas and Tyler for a month's visit to friends and

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Bowman, of Uvalde, are in the city visiting Mrs. G. M. Worthington.

Miss Thirza L. Westcott left jast week on an extensive eastern trip. She will first visit in San Antoniol Houston and Gaiveston, and from there will go to Cincinnati to attend the general Federation of Women's clubs as delegate was given in their honor.

isits to El Paso.

A delightful informal hospitality per-

In the receiving line were the wives

After a week's visit with Mrs R. Y from the El Paso club. Later she will Anderson, Mrs. C. U. Gerber let: last spend some time in New York and, be-

YOU SAVE MONEY IF YOU VOTE FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP a year for its fire hydrants, sewers and street sprinkling. Five years hence, if this city continues to grow, the cost of this service alone to the city will be equivalent to the annual payment of $30,000 in discharge of the debt incurred to the purchase of the present water-fore returning, may visit the British paying nearly $20,000 works."-From the report of the second water committee, James R. Harpez, Serving at the punch bowl were: Misses Maud Austin, Frances Ciark, Anna Shelton, and others. In the dining room Mrs. W. E. Race and Mrs. Z. T. White assisted. The table was attractively set with cluny iace dollies, and sparkling cut glass, while La France roses formed the central decoration. An orchestra hidden in a recess of the reception room rendered the sweetest of music in softened tones,

A delicious salad course followed by the ice course was served. The principal feature of the evening was the musical program, which was of exceptionally high order, and was given un-

of the local bankers, Mesdames Joshua | der the direction of J. G. McNary, as S. Raynolds, J. F. Williams, W. L. Tooley, T. M. Wingo, L. J. Glichrist, A. W. L. Duet-Tuya del Destura. Parvin Witte, J. G. McNary. Mad Song from Lucia di Lammer-F. Kerr, Winchester Cooley, U. S. Stewart, S. T. Turner, and W. W. Turnoor. Mrs. J. J. Kaster. Indian Songs-Cadman. Parvin Witte. La Camponello; Liszt. Francis Moore. Duct. Serenade: Schubert. Mr. and Mrs. Parvin Witte.

I Adore Thee—Lamar. Mrs. Leila T. Moore. Quartet, Lucia di Lammermoor. Mrs. Witte, Mrs. Pollock, Mr. Witte, Mr. Mc-Military Polonaise (Chopin). Mr.

A dance this evening at the Country club complimentary to the bankers and their wives will terminate the social features of the program of entertain-

Many Wedding and Social Affairs For El Paso Brides

Miss Nell Pollard will entertain with guests, which afforded much amuse a miscellaneous shower on Saturday ment.

afternoon at the country club in honor Misof Miss Lillian Austin, whose marriage to Thomas R. Hasam, of Mexico City, takes place in June.

Sunday evening at 7:30 oclock at the rectory of St. Clement's church, Joseph P. Fairfield and Miss Emma L. Leupke were married, Rev. Heary Easter officiating. She is from La Junta, Colo.

at which place they will live. Miss Margurite L. Sanford and Levy S. Lloyd were quietly married Saturday afternoon at 5 oclock at the rectory of St. Clement's church. Henry Easter performed the ceremony in the presence of witnesses. The couple will live at Douglas, Ariz, where the groom is engaged in the ranch business.

Mrs. William Graves entertained the Philathea class and a few of their friends on Thursday afternoon at a shower, complimentary to Miss Ruth Coleman, who is president of the class. The attractive new home of the hostess was effectively decorated for the occasion with quantities of plak roses

Upon the arrival of the guests the hostess gave each an envelope containing a sheet of paper. On one side the guests were invited to write a favorite recipe, and on the other a menu, which included the recipe. These were collected, strung upon a white ribbon and given to the young honor guest. The shower included a beautiful assortment of miscellaneous gifts, which were put into a handsomely trimmed basket, and presented to the bride elect. Following the shower a delightful luncheon was served to the guests, who were Mesdames Robert Bruce Smith, A. M. Walthall, H. F. Wright, Cooger, Edward Earl, H. Burnes, Misses Ruth Cole-man, Iduma Hughes, Abbott, Hester, Mabel Fahlgun, Nell Taylor, Leona Black, Laura Seamon.

. . . quilting party" in honor of Miss Ruth

Each guest put together a square for a quilt, which, after they were finished, were presented to the bride elect. The letters of Miss Coleman's name were used congratulatory telegrams to the honor made until tenight.

Miss Fannie Lou Yeager secured the prize, a sliver spoon, for the best word-ed telegram. The consolation prize was cut for and went to Miss Tura Comp-

Musical numbers by Misses Lula Ilfrey, Fannie Lou Yeager and Bessie Fuller added to the evening's enjoyment. Delicious refreshments served to the guests, who were: Misses Myra Prater, Ethel Rowe, Winifred Roe, Tura Compton, Helen Newell, Idu-ma Hughes, Lucile Pierce, Ina Nelson, Kate Robinette, Fannie Lou Yeager, Grace V. Logan, Henrietta Shirley, Margharetta Le Baron, Pauline Sprinz, Anna George, Westlake, Belle Chaplain, Ida Lockhart, Mary Gates, Evelyn Logan, Fannie Blakesley, Bessie Fuller, Mabel Logan, Margaret Fuller, Lula IIfrey, Eugenia Seddon, Mrs. Mary B. Gleason, Mrs. Elizabeth Koger, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Charles Seddon.

. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . IN CLUB CIRCLES.

The annual entertainment of the children of the Elks, which has heretofore been in charge of Mrs. B. F. mett, will this year be in the hands of Mrs. Hammett's friends,

The affair will be given at the club bome just after the close of school, and Mrs. Hammett desires that the children may be given the happiest possible The entertalnment will include music, dancing an abundance of refreshments, given for the men.

and perhans other enjoyable features.

Dainty refreshments were served and perhaps other enjoyable features. An unusually large number of guests enjoyed the week end dance at the Country club Saturday evening. With its spacious rooms, and broad verandas the club is an ideal place to while away summer evenings.

Mrs. Heil Hale, 1265 North Florence Grant, Misses Lillian and Maxie Cole Mrs. Carrie Seddon very delightfully entertained on Saturday evening at a

FORT WORTH-WACO WANT SCHOOL Dallas Tex., May 11.—Either Fort Worth or Waco is likely to get the Texas Christian university location. It is believed that the board, which is in letters of Miss Coleman's name were used session here today, has already de-in a contest as a code for writing cided, but the announcement will not be

OF INTEREST TO TEACHERS

It used to be true that bifocal glasses were troublesome and old-looking, and trying to the eyes. It is not true of Kryptoks -the new bifocals that look and wear like plain glasses, but give perfect near-and-far vision.

Come in-let's talk it

El Paso Optical Co.

EL PASO, TEXAS, Established 1901 Bell Phone 104: Auto 1104.

...............

000000000000000000 Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Du Bose very delightfully entertained on Friday evening at a bridge party of seven tables. Pink was the attractive color emphasized in the decorations.

The chandeliers were shielded with dainty pink shades, while a profusion of pink roses and pink sweet peas formed the floral adornments.

Mrs. J. E. Bowen won the first prize, a silver spoon, and the consolation prize, a bridge plate, fell to Miss Mazie Cole. Winston Peters won the prize

The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Winston Pettus, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Loretz, Mr. and Mrs. John Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Noake, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Burney, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Eyster, Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. The Shakespere Reading club will A. White, K. D. Franklin, C. E. Pollock, old its next meeting at the home of Harriett Clark, C. W. Gerber, J. H.

> next week at the home of Mrs. H. S. Potter, on Upson avenue.

The Mothers' club of Highland Park school will meet Thursday after, at 2:30

HOYT FURNITURE COMPANY'S Homeward Bound Sale

Preparatory to moving into our new store at 109 to 113 San Francisco street when completed we will com-

Monday, May 16th

that will place reductions on the prices of our high grade lines that will be MONEY SAVING CONCES-SIONS not often met with in a stock like ours. We deem it unnecessary to go into detail as to the character of the lines carried by the Hoyt Furniture Company, which we feel is well enough known to El Paso people and surrounding country, but the necessity of disposing of them is the important part, and that before we move, an enormous undertaking in many ways, and a necessary personal care to each piece which is almost impossible. In view of these facts we are going to make a REDUCTION OF PRICES that will be sufficient inducements for you to take the goods instead of our moving them and you will say so when you come in and begin to figure.

Our stock has been kept up to the usual standard in our temporary location at 218 SOUTH STAN-TON STREET, which offers advantages not always to be had in this way at this season, enabling you to get goods from the best factories known, comprising 1910 designs, styles and finishes and at prices paid for ordinary makes.

Bed Room Suits, Library Suits, Dining Room Suits, Parlor Suits, Living Room Furniture, Davenports, Chairs, Rockers, Settees, Flat and Roll Top Office Desks, Typewriter Desks, Chairs and Tables, and odd pieces for every part of the home in solid mahogany, genuine quarter sawed oak, Circassian walnut and birdseye maple. "Oliver" Brass Beds, the sanitary and otherwise faultless "Herrick" Refrigerator, "Hoosier" and "Elwell" Kitchen Cabinets are only a partial list of what will be included in this SACRIFICE SALE.

It is difficult to get correct ideas of values and styles from descriptions. Come and see the goods, and what you can save by taking advantage of this sale beginning MONDAY, MAY THE 16TH.

HOYT FURNITURE COMPANY

Temporary